About This Content

Take On Noisecontrollers is an entirely free DLC for Take On Helicopters.

Fusing two seemingly disconnected worlds, it is one of the first forays of hardstyle music into gaming. The exciting collaboration between DJ and producer duo Noisecontrollers and Bohemia Interactive, has produced a fun expansion for everyone to enjoy.

Take On Noisecontrollers includes 14 new Time Trials, virtual recreations of the Noisecontrollers themselves (Bas Oskam & Arjan Terpstra), themed Light helicopter liveries, and last but not least: a 30-minute exclusive DJ mix!

Key features

- Paint Schemes – Fly around using several new paint schemes for the Light helicopter
- Tough Time Trials – Beat the best times and the special Noisecontrollers time, in 14 new races.
- Hardstyle Music Channel - Get a preview of the E=nc2 debut album in an exclusive mix.
- The Noisecontrollers – Meet Bas and Arjan as virtual characters

Owners of Take on Helicopters will automatically download this content the next time they update their game.

Waiting to purchase as a gift on sales and then this happens, so i'm making official claims as they didn't have the guts to make one.

Not going to purchase anything again from paradox. Quite an update. I'm into space and I enjoyed the hell out of this. The update handled a mess of usability issues and improved the graphics. The challenge is the game, not the UI. I couldn't help but imagine the book/film "the martian" the entire time I was playing.

I liked:

- -Colonizing mars
- -Lots of characters to pick from
- -Real science
- -Several landing sites
- -Updated graphics
- -Upgrading

I'd like:

- -Better camera controls
- -Some way to see the resources of each character without cycling through them

Super Recommended. Neat platformer deffinatly worth the price. discount unneeded lol. the timer really puts you end edge 10/10 would say "stfu im comming \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665!" again . though i do not know if she is suppose to appear by chance or if it bugs out if you die and she might not show.. ill be honest i didn't know i had a peenis until i was 13 years old. what does this have to do with this game? EVERYTHING. the game relies on your inability to question its own existence. is it a good game? yes. but is it great? hardly.. hahs godo tiemas

Complete waste of money.

Not only do the graphics look like they were pressed through a potatoe - the game play is slow and repetative. I was looking forward to controlling a ship in battle. Not simple helm commands. left right midships.

There is no way to speed up the gameplay. It has two speeds. Snails Pace - and slightly faster snail.

It's a junker of a game - and over priced.

DO NOT WASTE YOUR MONEY. I am really enjoying this game! The brick breaking game is fun and challenging and has for "worlds" to unlock which equates to 40 levels, four of which are boss fights. I have already gotten 8 hours of gameplay out of it and I still have a lot more content to unlock! The archery is fun and also has 40 levels I think. The shield blocking game as well. It's super polished. I thought it was worth the price!

There is a bug or "feature" where world 2 of the brick breaking game doesn't unlock unless you hit "Next" after beating the first boss. Don't hit "Select level". Then you need to beat the bonus round and 2-1 in order for it to unlock! I don't know if its the same for the other bosses because that's the only one I did. Took me awhile to figure it out. It was frustrating.. Better than the 1st, which I also recommend. Although I don't see what you have any business playing the 2nd without playing the first. Story has different characters which I'm not thrilled about, BUT there is a map in an rpg maker game which is awesome AND you get the magic orb at the beginning of the game. Great changes by the dev. I will continue playing all the way through this one as well.. Perhaps I'm biased because this is my first genuine VR game. But HOLY \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 THIS IS AWESOME!!!!!! I'm not sure if this is an expansion or a sequel, but it is an improvement on the enjoyable game of the same name (iBomber Defense). Tower defense fans take a look!. Score \u2013 8/10 (Recommended)

If you don't care if an interactive storybook doesn't read itself, there's a lot to like about The Zwuggels: the game is a hoot for four and five-year-olds, it has superb artwork and it's a great opportunity for you and your child to bond as you explore the adventure together. Recommended if you're a parent seeking a family-friendly precursor to point 'n' click adventures for children.
